

You Can Do (Whatever)!

Cat Stevens

You can do whatever you want to do
Anything you want, you can do
You can ride a tiger or walk the dock
Anything you wish can be true
You can watch the world as it passes by
And you can make it stop for you

You can stay at home or brave a storm
When the blizzard blows
You can dance around in the rain or
Watch from the window
You can lay in bed and do nothing or
Rise and shine
You can take whatever comes around
But please don't take what's mine

You can do whatever you want to do
Anything you want, you can do
You can say whatever you wish to say
But if you do that make it true
You can chase a dream in the black of night
But you can make it walk to you

You can treat the world like a piece of dust or a pot of gold
You can be a child in your heart or you can grow old
You can laise around in your jeans or put on a suit
You can be the boss of the company, or just join the pew
You can close your eyes to the dark or make it bright
You can stop the wrongs of the world and you can make it right
And you can hide at home when the soldiers start to march out
You can listen to what they say, or you can shout
