Aurora Borealis

Catamenia

Silent Death is creeping in the night while the burning sky gives hope owls watching the dying wanderer flames in the sky, freezing night

Why is the sky so bright at night who put the flames in our lives... northern lights winds are so cold and he knows the only hope is to follow the flames in the northern sky

Guide me burning sky, guide me kiss goodbye the freezing night northern lights, will you take me guide me burning sky, guide me

Why is the sky so bright at night who put the flames in our lives... northern lights winds are so cold and he knows the only hope is to follow the flames in the northern sky.
