

Failed

Cataract

This is the end of your bluff, was this lesson enough?
No remorse, no lessons learned Also arguments sink to the ground but you don't look around No remorse, no lessons learned all your shiny and golden bellies stuffed with the tragedy and misfortune this was for nothing - for nothing we've failed no lessons learned - no remorse for the unveiled going down the same road - the road of wreaking havoc no look back to ravaged empty fields prosperity and abundance, feed the vultures with innocent preys

No remorse, no lessons learned this was all for nothing! nothing! this was all for nothing - for nothing we have failed this was all for nothing - we have failed
