

Fade

Catch Your Breath

Locked inside my mind
All alone and I can't break free
Save me, save me
From myself
Why, why can't my mind fight
Patiently building
I guess I'll be lost forever
Run get away break free
I don't wanna be lost forever

This is all that left of my life
This is all that left of me

Fade away again to my dark place
Trapped inside my own skin
I guess I'm just too weak
My demons follow me
They watch as I
Fade to nothing

I open up my eyes
But what the point there's no end in sight
Save me, save me
From this hell

Where has all hope gone
I guess I've lost touch
But I'll wait for my redemption
Now is this it
The end
There's no redemption
This is all that's left of my life
This is all that left of me

Fade away again to my dark place
Trapped inside my own skin
I guess I'm just too weak
My demons follow me
They watch as I
Fade to nothing

I can't escape it
The voices in my head
Why won't they leave me alone
And just leave me for dead

Fade away again
Fade away again

Fade away again to my dark place
Trapped inside my own skin
I guess I'm just too weak
My demons follow me
They watch as I
