

Shame On Me

Catch Your Breath

If I close my eyes
I can see the home you built inside my mind
And I let it...

Did you write me off?
Did I care too much?
Can we call this love?
Are we too far gone?
Have we had enough?
You know it's not like you
To go and sugarcoat the truth
I see it on your lips
Your midnight trips
What's going on...

Tell me now, tell me how
I'm breaking down and you're just fine

If I close my eyes
I can see the home you built inside my mind
And I let it come to life
Let it set down roots where there was once a spine
Shame on me
Shame on me

Behind your walls (Behind your walls)
Are you listening at all? (Listening)
'Cause if I can't get through
I'm stuck like you, I can't move on

I try and try but if I...

Close my eyes
I can see the home you built inside my mind
And I let it come to life
Let it set down roots where there was once a spine
Shame on me

(Shame on me)
You run away when you just can't face it
Hide in the dark but you know you hate it
Made me believe in a life you didn't want
Shame on me
(Shame on me)

Tell me now, tell me how
I'm breaking down and you're just fine

If I close my eyes
I can see the home you built inside my mind
And I let it come to life
Let it set down roots where there was once a spine
Shame on me
