

Overlap

Catfish And The Bottlemen

Why does it take the eleventh hour
For us to make the simplest of calls?
Rather than decide
This all tonight
I'm good to follow your lead
So I'd take as long as you need

I've found that we end up laughing
So it's sound
And eventually
I know that if paths keep crossing
And your life keeps lapping
Over me

Why does it take the eleventh hour
For us to make the easiest of calls?
Rather than decide
This all in a night
I'm good to follow your lead, my love
So I'd take as long as you need

Cause I've found that we end up laughing
So it's sound
And eventually
I know that if paths keep crossing
And your life keeps lapping
Over me
Then tell us what's your boy to do?

Cause I've found that we end up laughing
So it's sound
And eventually
I know that if paths keep crossing
And your life keeps lapping
Over me
I know that if paths keep crossing
And your life keeps lapping
Over me
I know that if paths keep crossing
And your life keeps lapping
Over me
Then tell us what's your boy to do?
Over me
I go straight from mine to work to...
