Good Goodbyes

Catherine McGrath

I thought goodbyes were never easy
I should know by now, boy believe me
I thought love would just leave me broke
But I'm not, I can breathe, turns out you, set me free

And I'm wishing, I'm wishing, I'm wishing you find all that you need
And I'm hoping you find somebody who loves you more than me
Yeah, it hurt me for like two weeks
Don't expect tears when you see me, no…

This ain't a holding on as long as we can 'cause this time there's no tears to dry
This is a "Thank You, God" we got out of the mess we were in baby just in ti me
Who knew there was still light in my eyes?
Who knew that you don't have to try
And that you don't have to cry?
Who knew there could be good goodbyes
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh

I might miss you if you'd have been there or Given me proof that you actually cared but now
There's no regrets, no turning back
Out of sight, out of mind
Already left you behind

And I'm wishing, I'm wishing, I'm wishing you find somebody new
And I won't have no trouble finding someone who loves me more than you
Yeah, it hurt me for like two weeks
Don't expect tears when you see me, no…

This ain't a holding on as long as we can 'cause this time there's no tears to dry
This is a "Thank You, God" we got out of the mess we were in baby just in ti me
Who knew there was still light in my eyes?
Who knew that you don't have to try
And that you don't have to cry?
Who knew there could be good goodbyes
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh
Good goodbyes
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh
Good goodbyes
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh
Good goodbyes
Hey eh eh, eh eh, hey eh eh, eh eh
Good goodbyes

Who knew there could be good goodbyes?
Who knew there could be better times?
Who knew I would feel so alive?
Who knew that you don't have to cry?
Who knew that you don't have to try?
Who knew there could be, who knew there could be
Who knew there could be good goodbyes?

This ain't a holding on as long as we can 'cause this time there's no tears to dry
This is a "Thank You, God" we got out of the mess we were in baby just in ti me
Who knew there was still light in my eyes?
Who knew that you don't have to try?
Who knew that you don't have to cry?
Who knew there could be good goodbyes?
