This high school shit is getting old
I've had enough of being home
Lost inside a world that I've outgrown
The only one I know
Liz broke up with him again
So I'm not allowed to be his friend
We tear apart the messages he sent
But she'll take him back again

Ooh
Nothing's out of place
Ooh
Guess I'm the only thing that's changed

This high school shit is getting old
We've burned nostalgia to the bone
Force a laugh 'cause I can't let it show
I'm over all their inside jokes

Ooh
Didn't always feel this way
Ooh
Like I'm the only thing that's changed

I'm too young to be afraid of getting old
I'm getting old
Thought these were my better days
Is it okay to let them go?

Is it time I run away
If I'm the only thing that's changed?
