

Savior

Catie Turner

Lost in the moment
Your heart is open
I see what's inside
Something's the matter
You're looking at me
With innocent eyes

And all your issues
Everything you've been through
I've taken them as mine
But now we've been through
Me trying to fix you
One too many times

I'm not gonna be your savior
I'm not gonna take it on
Give it all to try and change you
If you thought I would you've got me wrong
Write it off as bad behavior
You want me to play along
I'm not gonna be your savior
If you thought I was you've got me wrong

You're always brooding
Casually clueless to your mistakes
Growing accustomed to overindulgence
And getting your way

And all your issues
Everything you've been through
I've taken them as mine
But now we've been through
Me trying to fix you
One too many times

I'm not gonna be your savior
I'm not gonna take it on
Give it all to try and change you
If you thought I would you've got me wrong
Write it off as bad behavior
You want me to play along
I'm not gonna be your savior
If you thought I was you've got me wrong

I'm not gonna be your savior
I'm not gonna be (I'm not gonna be your...)
I'm not gonna be your savior
I'm not gonna be

I'm not gonna be your savior (I'm not gonna be)
I'm not gonna take it on
Give it all to try and change you (I'm not gonna be)
If you thought I would you've got me wrong (I'm not gonna be)
Write it off as bad behavior
You want me to play along
I'm not gonna be your savior
If you thought I was you've got me wrong

I'm not
I'm not gonna be your savior, no
