

Birthday

Cats on Trees

I've lost my head, broken my bones
Do you know how I play the game?
My legs have wounds, got a black eye

And on my birthday
I was ready to get in a fight
I want you, ooh
And on my birthday
There could be no other girl tonight
Just me and you
I braced myself and walked straight up to you

I won't let you pass me by
I would hold you tight
Night and day, all the time
I would turn you upside down
I would warp your mind
Won't you follow me now?

I wanna feel you all over me
Slowly look here and you're killing me
Do you wanna be my guy?
I wanna feel you all over me
The music you play is calling me
You have to be my guy
You walked away from me

I felt the smoke slide down my neck
Coming closer
Broken, my bones, the man has left
Like a vapor

And on my birthday
I was ready to get in a fight
I want you, ooh
And on my birthday
And on my birthday

I won't let you pass me by
I would hold you tight
Night and day, all the time
I would turn you upside down
I would blow up your mind
Won't you follow me now?

I wanna feel you all over me
Slowly look here and you're killing me
Do you wanna be my guy?
I wanna feel you all over me
The music you play is calling me
You have to be my guy

How? How? How? How?
Owe-owe, owe, owe
Owe-owe, owe, owe
I wanna feel you all over me
Slowly look here, you're killing me

You have to be my guy

I won't let you pass me by
Night and day, all the time
I would turn you upside down
I would blow up your mind
Won't you follow me now?

I wanna feel you all over me
Slowly look here and you're killing me
Do you wanna be my guy?
Slowly look here and you're killing me
I miss you

I wanna feel you all over me
Slowly look here and you're killing me
I miss you, ooh
I miss you, ooh
