

Blue

Cats on Trees

Blue
I'm ok
I won't be changing my ways for you
Oh blue
I'm ok
I'm not fading away for you

But I'm alright, we can't change the night
It's up to you to understand
But I'm ok, we can't change the day
I'm someone new, you can't take the change

But I'm alright, can't put up a fight
I hope you do, you do understand
Cause I'm alright, right, right

Blue
I'm ok
I can live on my own, can you?
Oh blue
I'm ok
I celebrate the day without you

But I'm alright, we can't change the night
It's up to you to understand
But I'm ok, we can't change the day
I'm someone new, you can't take the change

But I'm alright, can't put up a fight
I hope you do, you do understand
Cause I'm alright, right, right

Running away I fight
Running away feels right
Running away
Running away

But I'm alright, we can't change the night
It's up to you to understand
But I'm ok, we can't change the day
I'm someone new, you can't take the change

But I'm alright, can't put up a fight
I hope you do, you do understand
Cause I'm alright, right, right

But I'm ok, we can't change the day
I'm someone new, you can't take the change
But I'm alright, can't put up a fight
I hope you do, you do understand

Cause I'm alright, right, right
Cause I'm alright, right, right
