

Mama Said

Cats on Trees

Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile

Tomorrow after all there is tomorrow
I see the ice drifting with the bird sing for tomorrow
Tomorrow after all there is tomorrow
In my head a new song I let it be I see tomorrow
I can play in my part for real
I have to hold them high and feel

Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile
Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile

Tomorrow after all there is tomorrow
I heard the snow falling
My hopes and dreams I wish tomorrow
I can heal in my mind for real
I wipe my back to greet that heal

Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile
Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile

Don't you feel you're never brave
Many smothering beliefs
Ashes falling from the sky
You feel the fire in the sun
The end is blue it never burn
The rings are falling from the sky

Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile
Mama said to me, mama said to me
Mama said to me, mama said
Have a happy smile
Have a happy happy smile
Have a happy smile
