

Constipation Camp

Cattle Decapitation

with a hose
no one will ever find you The smell of your carrion hangs low in the street weeks of returning to relax in the meat Butchery/morgue meets day-spa retreat

The smell of the carnage begin the excrement Choice picked tidbits of ligaments I mix for an afternoon sludge soup constantly craving, needing to eat shit

No escape from this place life condemned to rot pulpy ulcerous filaments gagged snot and clots
