Better

Caught a Ghost

This is the best time to be alive
It's never been easier to survive
So many comforts, so many know it
But I still can't afford a child
And if I get sick, I'll be denied
Doc don't see ya if you're unemployed
It's hard to see all the evil
Earth can't hold all these people
Fighting over which ground to destroy

And I don't think it's gonna get better
Guess it could probably be worse
Tell me that each day's a blessing
Some days feel like a curse

Sometimes I feel so defeated
I was given all the tools I needed
I wasted it all on a life of salt
Life that I had in my head
Keep it different from the one I've lead
How did I possibly go so wrong?
All of the friendly faces
Hiding in different places
Ones that I've loved have all moved on

Hoping it's gonna get better
I guess it could probably be worse
And tell me that each day's a blessing
Some days feel like a curse

So tell me how to find
The way to peace of mind
Surely there's a better road in mind
I stay up late and pace
While selfish feelings change
Determined not to fall behind

But I know that it's gonna get better
I know it could always be worse
Tell me that each day's a blessing
But some days feel like a curse

And I know that it's gonna get better
Know it could always be worse
And ya tell me that each day's a blessing
But some days feel like a curse
