

Matter Of Time

Caught In The Act

Rigth from the moment that i looked in your eyse i just knew that finally love had taken me by surprise now it seems that we are just a heartebate away from the very happy first kiss i know it's waiting for us one sweet day

It's just a matter of time oh baby before i make you mine
'cos i waited for this moment for all my life now i can't let go because i know it's just a matter of time

Girl there is one thing that i'm certain of i'am sure one day our friendship will melt into love they say taht good things come to those who wait and since you're the best thing i've ever seen you haven't come a day too late in my dreams i see us me and you but is's gonna take some time before my dreams come true
