

What I want falls
Shorter than perfect
But better than earnest
Do better next time
When your life wasn't worth it

Don't wanna be nice
I just wanna be right
I don't wanna break bread
How much better would it be
If we had to start fights

Doing anything and everything possible
If you start a fire stop drop and roll
I don't need your thoughts
I don't wanna know
What you're offering
Don't need posturing

There's no doubt in my mind
There's no worries on God
If you're taking my side
I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why
Arms open and wide
I'm entitled I lied
If you're taking my side
I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why

Money is cheap so I talk too much
Low hanging fruit so I pack a lunch
Every time that I press my luck
I know it's worth more than enough

Doing anything and everything possible
If you start a fire stop drop and roll
I don't need your thoughts
I don't wanna know
What you're offering
Don't need posturing

There's no doubt in my mind
There's no worries on God
If you're taking my side
I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why
Arms open and wide
I'm entitled I lied
If you're taking my side
I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why
