

Alchemy (3am)

Cautious Clay

Sorcery

The way you make me feel it all emotionally
Like the molecules and atoms moving openly
The way you captured my attention
There ain't no chemistry in question
I knew we had the same intentions

Initially

The more I stay in touch, the less I feel cast out to sea
I could say that with my chest or say it openly

But the way I feel for you ain't said so easily
I'm at a loss for words
It's what's you're doing to me

So go on and call us crazy, then
We not supposed to make sense
But in spite of it all
They wanna call us crazy
But we been in love
Oh, oh

Some type of intensity
Mistaken for a coincidence when it's relevant to How I'm feeling about ya
The timing been changing me serendipitously
I want to say accidents happen
'Cause our energies matching
And the more I stay in touch
The less I sense it consciously

Ooh, the way I feel for you ain't said so easily
I'm at a loss for words
Through what you're doing to me
What you're doing to me

So go on and call us crazy, then
We not supposed to make sense
But in spite of it all
They wanna call us crazy
But we been in love
Oh, oh

They wanna call us crazy
But we been in love
Ooh
Oh, oh
