

Call Me

Cautious Clay

You only wanna hear the good news
You and I never played by the same rules
I took a look inside the pantry
Close enough to know a bagel understands me

More than expected
No plans, happy endings
Get the fuck out my mentions
If you follow my lead

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK

I see it through till the weekend
Never making an excuse for a reason
To be different
I gotta tempt it

But I could never expect it
No plans, happy endings
Never walk through my entrance
You can follow my lead

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK

Call me by name
Call me by name

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK

Call me by name
Call me your savior
Fell for the fame
It's alright, it's OK
