

Joshua Tree

Cautious Clay

Cause I take fear in those who love me
Low lighting with the gated entry
I'm level-headed cause I'm never stressing
And I stay unsettled, never wanted blessing

So I don't wanna be loved
No, I don't wanna be loved
And I don't wanna make up
No, I don't wanna make up

Short-sighted for the lies I told you
But you stood tall when the glass was empty
And you're lowkey in the face of limelight
And you wanna be who you are when it really counts most

So I don't wanna be loved
No, I don't wanna be loved
And I don't wanna make up
No, I don't wanna make up

Living like a true Hollywood story
Highways, chasing washed up glory
Risk it all, no need to be a martyr
Paradise couldn't get much harder
Ego is all the baggage that I need
It's all pressure for the ones that you really love

So I don't wanna be in love (love, love)
So I don't wanna be in love (love, love)
And I don't wanna make up
And I don't wanna make up
