

Repeat Myself

Cautious Clay

I'm losing my mind
But I don't remember asking where it went
So if I gave it up
You're the one I'd send it to

Is it a sign?
I feel like I'm losing something with no regret
So if I gave a fuck
You're the one I'd send it to
I repeat myself, repeat myself to know I'm not alone

So where do I go
When you wanna say you know exactly what I'm going through?
The thick in my lips could put them against me
Dry your eyes, I know you know
I'm simple and cold
Like soba noodles on a Sunday
You only want it one way
I repeat myself, repeat myself to know I'm not alone

But I'm losing my mind
And I don't remember asking where it went
But if I gave it up
You're the one I'd send it to

Is it a sign?
I feel like I'm losing something with no regret
If I gave a fuck
You're the one I'd send it to
