

SATURDAY MORNING CARTOONS

Cautious Clay

Double trips to the grocery store
Just to see what you got in the bag
Whole lot I'm thinking about
Never needed a reason to brag

So you push it away
Telling yourself that you needed a cause
But I'll never need more than a sense
Not sorry

I want nothing but the best, no nights sober
No I don't wanna stress you out no more
Nothing but the best, two tone Rover
Nothing but the best, nothing but

How does the bed feel alone?
Know it's a feeling we're running from
I can't get emotional though (Tired of picking)
So I gotta leave in the morning

With thoughts of you on my mind in truth
I know the attraction will fade with time
But I'll never need more than a sense
Not sorry

I want nothing but the best, no nights sober
No I don't wanna stress you out no more
Nothing but the best, two tone Rover
Nothing but the best, nothing but

(Nothing but the best
Nothing but the best
Nothing but the best
Nothing but the best
Nothing but the best
Nothing but the best)
