

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

Cautious Clay

Something for nothing, couldn't pay the interest
Away at the function, needed good resistance
Thinking I'll dive in, or maybe I might sit
Right back where we started

But I know how to make you fuss, wanted
Just wanted to make you blush, you're blushing
Soaking up all my trust, knowing
That we've got lost, lost, lost

Growing devotion, but the water's tasteless
Can tell that you rushing, knowing time is endless
Doing me honest, straight as a promise
Right back where we started

But I know how to make you fuss, wanted
Just wanted to make you blush, you're blushing
Soaking up all my trust
Knowing that we've got lost, lost, lost

Break down enough no patience
Low light to what you waiting on
Make haste to let you go
Go along
Break down enough no patience
Low light to what you waiting on
Make haste to this
I owe you one, oh

But I know how to make you fuss, yeah
Just wanted to make you blush
Soaking up all my trust
Knowing that we've got lost, lost, lost
Knowing that we've got lost, lost, lost
