

Reckoning

Cave In

We're gonna celebrate
With the songs we sing
We're gonna seal your fate
With a hollow ring

You swore on your bible
With pages worn and distressed
How about a revival
Without getting too complex

Reckoning
Everything the day that you died
Recognize
Wrecking the gleam inside

We're gonna congregate
In your place of birth
We're gonna levitate
Til we join the earth

Get locked in your cycle
Hope you find complete success
Making deals with shadows
Become a defeated mess

Reckoning
Everything the day that you died
Recognize
All illusion, mind of lies

Reckoning
