

Shapeshifter

Cave In

The spirals unwind into straight lines
Of this, you are not aware
And this, with you no one shares
Now covered with germs, they morph into worms
Shapeshifters enter this lair
Of this, you're still not aware

When they were swarming
You heard no warning call
There was no sign at all
Shapeshifters conquer this lair
Shapeshifters conquer this lair
Conquer this lair, conquer this lair

The heart opens wide, its halves now divide
Of this, you are not aware
And this, with you no one shares
Transformed into knives, they cut through your spine
Shapeshifters enter this lair
Of this, you are not aware

And are you feeling the harm now

Nothing could save your fall
Shapeshifters conquer this lair
Shapeshifters conquer this lair
Conquer this lair, conquer this lair
And no one is there
