

Crash and burn, someday we'll learn, but for now, we can't get it right
Nothing hurts, you're in reverse, so just close your eyes tonig ht
When you can't sleep at night
It's not because you have monsters hiding under your bed
I'm so sorry I can't make it right Cause dear the demons you're afraid of live inside of your head

Please come home, I'm so tired of sleeping all alone There's nothing left of me anymore, I'm just lying in a heap of your old clothes on the floor I'm a mess, a damn disgrace, just a ghost with your face on the wall
