

Feb 14

Cavetown

She rubs my back for me
On February fourteen
She says that I'll do great
That's not what's scaring me

I get up on my feet
Give her one last hug
They're all waiting for me
I wish that was enough

I got your letter
Hope you feel better
Than I do
I miss you
She said she's here if
I ever need someone to talk to
But all I ever wanna talk about is you

Think I zoned out again
But I still tried my best
They said it's my best show
I hope you were impressed

Just tryin' to buy more time
When as she'd go she'd say
With one regretful smile
"Happy Valentine's Day"
I just stand and stare
Feel my body fallin' away
Feel my body fallin' away

Feel my body fallin' away
I'll see you again someday
