

Curling up against the wall
Can't shut you up, you know it all
Yeah, honestly, I'd kill you if I could
And I can't fall asleep, 'cause this is adulthood

I'd kill you if I could
I'd kill you if I could

Feel like there was something urging me to do it
But lately I've been wanting to drown
And the bed that I grew up in, knowin' close to nothing
'Bout the stories I was writing about
Yeah, I feel like there was something to do today
But I just wanna lay here with you away
I'll save, just us oblivious
Until the world comes crashing down

Curling up against the wall
Can't shut you up, you know it all
Yeah, honestly, I'd kill you if I could
And I can't fall asleep, 'cause this is adulthood

I'd kill you if I could
I'd kill you if I could

And what I'd do just to kick you out
I'll fix you out of my head, I don't think I'm in love
It feels so bad, blame us on around
Try to shut it out but

Curling up against the wall
Can't shut you up, you know it all
Yeah, honestly, I'd kill you if I could
And I can't fall asleep, I can't fall asleep

Curling up against the wall
Can't shut you up, you know it all
Yeah, honestly, I'd kill you if I could
And I can't fall asleep, 'cause this is adulthood
