

Thank You

Cavetown

Thank you for everything that you do
I don't think you realize the true extent of how happy you make me
And I promise you, that by the time that this through I'll never forget how incredible you are

And I'm not going anywhere anytime soon
So please promise me that you won't leave my side for now
I'm so sick of the suspense of knowing things will end
And I'm tired of losing all my friends
I'm losing all my friends

Thank you for being calm with me when Things are gettin' kinda rough, it's like I am dying all the ti me
And thanks for being there when it's cold
It's like you're my coracle and together we're gonna ride out t his storm

And I'm not going anywhere anytime soon
So please promise me that you won't leave my side for now
I'm so sick of the suspense of knowing things will end
And I'm tired of losing all my friends
I'm losing all my friends
I keep losing all my gosh darn friends

I'm never gonna let this one slide
I wish that we could hang out all time
But the distance between our minds is unmetaphorically and ocean
I wonder if one day I'll be the guy that you think of first whe n you cry
Cause I'm always here by your side, just as you are by mine
