

Picture me softly like a ball of wasabi
Only there to keep things interesting but nobody wants me
I'm a secret tsunami flooding into the lobby
As I go to get the keycard, all my vision is blurry

I miss you already
I miss you already
It's only been an hour
But it turns into a year and
I miss you already

My insides are heavy as she starts to get ready
You're still a little high so it takes longer than necessary
We're only friends
Just on the surface here
What's not to understand

She asks me for questions
I've wanted to ask her
But it's counterproductive
To truthfully answer

I miss you already
I miss you already
It's only been an hour
But it turns into a year and
I miss you already

Miss you already
Miss you already
It's only been an hour
But it turns into a year and
I miss you already
