Cavetown

Why does this matter so much to me?
Sometimes I wish I didn't matter to anybody
And sometimes I forget I do
You're winning now, well, good for you
It sucks for me (for me)

Flutter like a bat into hell
I'm coming home
They all said: "Put that thing back
Where it belongs"

Jokes on you
I don't belong anywhere
I am worm food
Uh-huh
Jokes on you
I don't belong anywhere
I am worm food

My head's not treating me well
I'm losing track
Of all the reasons I had for fighting back

And I'm scared
I don't belong anywhere
Uh-huh

Jokes on you
I don't belong anywhere
I am worm food
Uh-huh
Jokes on you
I don't belong anywhere
I am worm food
Uh-huh

Why does this matter so much to me?
(Jokes on you, I don't belong anywhere)
Sometimes I wish I didn't belong to anybody
(I am worm food)
Sometimes I forget I do
(Jokes on you, I don't belong anywhere)
You're winning now, good for you
(I am worm food)
