I've been dreaming with my eyes wide open My eyes wide open yeah I've been living with my broke heart open My broke heart open yeah Couldn't handle it if you walk away Just stay stay Stay stay, stay stay Just stay with me now [repeat] Tell me how you feel Tell me is this real Tell me do you know your wrong from right Tell me are you there Tell me do you care Tell me do you dream of me and I I've been dreaming with my eyes wide open My eyes wide open yeah I've been living with my broke heart open My broke heart open yeah Couldn't handle it if you walk away Just stay stay Stay stay, stay stay Just stay with me now . . . Come the morning light, is it over Somethings I don't want to change when we're sober Call it what it is No more promises I need you to say That I want you to stay Stay stay, stay stay Just stay with me now . . . I've been dreaming with my eyes wide open

My eyes wide open yeah

My eyes wide open yeah

I've been dreaming with my eyes wide open
