

Just Friends

Caylee Hammack

I'd sworn off love long 'fore I met you
But somehow you loosened the ties
On a tied-up heart you made
Walls look like sheets hung to dry
Easily pushed aside
In a moment I fell for it

You should've never come over
You should've left early and kept your hands to yourself
You knew better, you should've never promised me bliss
If you couldn't keep it, we should've stayed just friends
Just friends

I should've listened to my mama
And not let you in my head
I should've told you that I loved ya
But not let you in my bed
Was it the tension that kept your attention on me
Or were you just lonely and needing company?

Oh baby, maybe we should've stayed just friends
Just friends

If we had never made out (Do you think you'd wanna)
Still hang and sleep on my couch
Or do you think you'd wanna go back, and take it back
But it's too late, 'cause it don't work like that You should've held your own hand
We should've been, we should've been just friends
Just friends

I should've listened to my mama (I should've listened to my mam
a)
I should've listened to my mama (I should've listened to my mam
a)
We should've stayed just friends
