

Vacancy Light

Caylee Hammack

You were humble and I was homesick
You were perfect and I messed it up
You were a phone call that I shouldn't have made
But I was lonely and you were perfect

Now there's cigarette burns in the motel curtain
Spots of light on an unmade bed
I hear the neighbors fighting and I miss you
Damn, I miss you
I'm just sprawled on the floor like a rag doll
With my cheek pressed against the bathroom tile
I know that I've got issues but I miss you
Damn, I miss you
Can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light
If only for another night?
Oh, can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light?

'Cause you're forgiving and I'm stubborn
But you're like Elvis in my convoluted mind
Oh, you're so steady and I'm like fire
You build me up and I hurt everything I touch

And there's cigarette burns in the motel curtain
Spots of light on an unmade bed
I hear the neighbors fighting and I miss you
Damn, I miss you
I'm just sprawled on the floor like a rag doll
With my cheek pressed against the bathroom tile
I know that I've got issues but I miss you
Damn, I miss you
Can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light
If only for another night?
Oh, can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light?

Be my redemption, because I'm sorry
I know I do things that hurt you and I'll regret
But I'll be better if you'll come over
And block the world out, maybe you can just forget

But there's cigarette burns in the motel curtain
Spots of light on an unmade bed
I hear the neighbors fighting and I miss you
Damn, I miss you
I'm just sprawled on the floor like a rag doll
With my cheek pressed against the bathroom tile
I know that I've got issues but I miss you
Damn, I miss you
Can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light
If only for another night?
Oh, can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light?
Oh, can we fake love under the vacan-vacancy light?
Ooh
