

Dancing With Your Ghost

Cazette

Chasing shadows through the night
And I swear I saw your face
And at times when I turned and said "Hello"
Your heart, it turned to stone
Well, found my fortune [?]
Writing songs fit for the loneliest kings
But tonight, I'm all alone
Dancing with your ghost

Tonight, I'm all alone
Dancing with your ghost

Now we're stumbling with the stars
And I waltzed into a couple of our old bars
And when I heard them play your song
I forgot that you were gone
I know I'm stepping on your feet again
But I don't give a damn and I don't give if we're just friends
Cause tonight, I'll hold you close
Dancing with your ghost

Tonight, I'll hold you close
Dancing with your ghost

Dancing with your ghost
With your ghost
Dancing with your ghost
With your ghost
Dancing with your ghost
