

I Surrender

Cazzette

You have the key to unlock the door
I'm a casualty of this emotional war
Can't break the chains but I'm the one to blame
Give it all to keep you right here, right here with me

And I can't escape
You got a lock on my love
I'm a prisoner
For you I surrender

I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart

I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart

I can't ignore what fate has for us
Can run but can't hide, no getting away from love
My hands are tied and I'm bound to this feeling
Keeps calling me and I must give in

And I can't escape
You got a lock on my love
I'm a prisoner
For you I surrender

I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart

I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart

I surrender my heart
