

Ready 4 Luv

Cazzette

I wasn't lucky I was ready for your love
If your not looking
You won't see what's up above
It's not science
It's no mystery
I decided
My own destiny

I've heard it all before
It's luck if you find the one
But I think it's something more
It's me who made up my mind
To be ready 4 luv...

I wasn't lucky I was never one to bet
I'm gonna take a chance on you cause something tells me
It's a golden - opportunity
And I'm open
That's why I'm lucky

I've heard it all before
It's luck if you find the one
But I think it's something more
It's me who made up my mind
To be ready 4 luv...

I've heard it all before
It's luck if you find the one
But I think it's something more
It's me who made up my mind
To be ready 4 luv...
