

Anyway

CeCe Peniston

Oh no, wait just a minute
No, I won't let you finish
'Cause, you ain't gotta be with it
Matter of fact, no one asked for your opinion

So I just don't care what other people say
I'ma do just what I'ma do anyway
And I know and you know they gon' say what they gon' say
At the end of the day, it don't matter anyway

Anyway, anyway, anyway
Anyway, anyway, anyway
Anyway, anyway

People say you can't do it
That you just too this and too that
But it's your decision
Plus, they ain't gotta live with it

That's why I just don't care what other people say
I'ma do just what I'ma do anyway
And I know and you know they gon' say what they gon' say
At the end of the day, it don't matter anyway

That's why I just don't care what other people say
I'ma do just what I'ma do anyway (so do what you wanna do)
And I know and you know they gon' say what they gon' say
At the end of the day, it don't matter anyway

Just don't care what other people say
I'ma do just what I'ma do it anyway (and I already know)
And I already know they gon' say what they gon' say
At the end of the day, it don't matter anyway

Anyway, anyway, anyway, yeah

Say what you gon' say
It don't matter anyway
Say what you gon' say (anyway, anyway, anyway)

(Anyway, anyway, anyway) anyway
(Anyway, anyway, anyway) anyway
(Anyway, anyway, anyway) anyway
