

Looking Back At You

CeCe Winans

What can I do? What wish can I make come true?
Because you mean so much to me
The love I have for you is so strong, this is where I belong
My arms are open wide, so let me hold you

I will be the rock for you, the rain for you
The sun that lights the way across the dark, no matter where you are
I'm never very far away, night and day my love will lead you through
Look into your heart, I'll be looking back at you

It took some time, but finally you're all mine
It was the hardest road that brought you here
Now whatever comes will be alright, I'll never leave your side
So give me your hand and don't let go

I will be the rock for you, the rain for you
The sun that lights the way across the dark, no matter where you are
I'm never very far away, night and day my love will lead you through
Look into your heart, I'll be looking back at you

We'll find our way through every storm together now
Just look into your heart, I'll be there

I will be the rock for you, the rain for you
The sun that lights the way across the dark, no matter where you are
I'm never very far away, night and day my love will lead you through
Look into your heart, I'll be looking back at you
Look into your heart, I'll be looking back at you, you
