

No One Else

CeCe Winans

Heavenly father, there is no one greater
How excellent is thy name in all the earth
Oh Thou Most High, the Creator of life
You're the Rock, the Fortress and Deliverer
I'm gonna sing Your praises everyday
Got to tell the world about Ya
Gonna lift my voice, make a joyful noise
And this is why because there's...

No one else (not even mother)
No one else (not even father, no)
No one else (not even lover loves me like You do)
No one else (no need to fake it)
No one else
No one, no one else compares to You

Alpha and Omega (Alpha and Omega), the beginning and the ending
You control everything that's in between (everything in between)
Lily of the valley (Lily of the valley), completely lovely
Reigning King, there's a refuge under Your wing
I'm gonna sing Your praises everyday
Got to tell the world about Ya
Gonna lift my voice, make a joyful noise
And this is why because there's...

No one else (not even mother)
No one else (not even father, no)
No one else (not even lover loves me like You do)
No one else (no need to fake it)
No one else
No one, no one else compares to You

(No) No one can even come close
You can search now and forever
It's not at all about what You have done
It's who You are, just who You are

I'm gonna sing Your praises everyday
Got to tell the world about Ya
Gonna lift my voice, make a joyful noise
Ain't never seen nothing like Ya

I'm gonna sing Your praises everyday
Got to tell the world about Ya
I'm gonna lift my voice, make a joyful noise
And this is why because there's...

No one else (not even mother)
No one else (not even father, no)
No one else (not even lover loves me like You do)
No one else (no need to fake it)
No one else

No one, no one else compares to You
