

Running

Cecilia Krull

Some people never leave the past
Some people want it all too fast
Some people only pass you by
But no people are like you and I

So far from perfect
But it's still worth it
Cause nobody loves me like you do

Tell me you need me
And in a heartbeat
I will come running back to you

(Ahhh Ahhh Ahhh)
I will come running back to you
(Ahhh Ahhh Ahhh)
I will come running back to you

Running, running, running
Running, running, running
Running, running, running
I will come running back to you

Some people never want to change
Some people sit around and wait
Some people love a pretty lie
But no people are like you and I

So far from perfect
But it's still worth it
Cause nobody loves me like you do

Tell me you need me
And in a heartbeat
I will come running back to you

(Ahhh Ahhh Ahhh)
I will come running back to you
(Ahhh Ahhh Ahhh)
I will come running back to you

Running, running, running
Running, running, running
Running, running, running
I will come running back to you

So if you need me
Baby, believe me
I will come, I will come, I will come

Running, running, running
Running, running, running
Running, running, running
I will come running back to you

Running, running, running
Running, running, running

Running, running, running
I will come running back to you
