

Please

CeeLo Green

I'm tired, so tired, of chasing the dreams
With tears in my eyes I realize that it's running away
It's running away
But with all the wrong I've done, how could you ever love me?
... but it took much to say
Took much to say it

So please, please, please, please help me
Please, please, please, please, come one help me somebody
Somebody, I want somebody to be mine, please, please, please

The man, the man in the mirror, he won't even look at me
Well you may not believe it, but my own reflection
Told me I ought to be ashamed of myself
Oh yes it is, I'm wasting my time, my mind
I could dream, even let my body down on the bed
Oh yeah, but I can seem to ... lose it, just nobody loves me

So please, please, yeah, please, send me some kind of sign, please
I want, I want to be somebody, I want somebody to be mine
I'm begging please, yeah, please,
Someone, please, please, someone please
I said, I want to be somebody, I want somebody to be mine
Someone, someone, I want someone
Sometimes I got to move a lot
I say hummm.
