

Beloved

Celeste

I heard lightning don't strike twice
Could you be the man of my dreams or nothing alike
With your hand on my thigh, but my heart doesn't mind

I see you on every corner
Twist and I turn
Never learn sleep
Don't wanna till you hold me again
I don't care where you been
Just wanna know where I stand

Dearly beloved
If I had my way, you'd be here to stay
Oh believe me, beloved
If I had my way, you'd be here to stay

Sometimes I stare when I don't mean to do
Realise you never seem to open your eyes
When I'm here and I'm trying
You don't know what it's like

Dearly beloved
If I had my way, you'd be here to stay
Oh believe, believe me, beloved
If I had my way, you would have had yours in the first place

Each little note gets sweeter
Sweeter than most
I see you reaching for hope
You hear me say

Dearly beloved
If I had my way, you'd be here and you'd be here to stay
Oh believe me, beloved
