

Ideal Woman

Celeste

I like to think it's because I'm too proud
Too proud, too proud, too loud
Some others may say it's because I'm so tall
But that doesn't bother me at all

I may not be your ideal woman
The heaven in your head
The one that's gonna save you
From all your discontent
May not be your ideal woman
The freedom that you'd get
Please don't mistake me for somebody who cares

I like to think it's because I look good
Too good, too good, too good
Some others may say it's because I lack patience
Always got something to say when you're not around

I may not be your ideal woman
The heaven in your head
The one that's gonna save you
From all your discontent
May not be your ideal woman
The freedom that you'd get
Please don't mistake me for somebody who cares

I can't pretend
I can't pretend
I can't pretend
Ooh I can't pretend

I may not be your ideal woman
The heaven in your head
The one that makes you wonder whose chance it is next
May not be your ideal woman
The freedom that you'd get
Please don't mistake me for a woman who cares

Woman
The heaven in your head
Please don't mistake me for somebody who cares
