

Some Goodbyes Come With Hellos

Celeste

Misguided desires
All of these shots and misfires
You've had your fair share of those in the night
Oh how do you fake that?
Or do you forget?
The feeling that comes with the sunrise
Why did you do that?

Sometimes we can't choose things we are drawn to
Ones we are bound to lose
No one ever knows where it's gonna go
But some goodbyes come with hellos

So goodbye and hello, hello
Goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello
Goodbye and hello

Let go of romance
You know it makes sense
You say the right things and I'm thrown

Sometimes we can't choose things we are drawn to
Ones we are bound to lose
We should let them go
Trust me, this I know
That some goodbyes come with hellos

So goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello

You stay like you were
I stay like I want
Must be comfortable
Who wins? You win first
Always comes with perks
Don't you want more?

Sometimes we're drawn to things we cannot choose
Ones we are bound to lose
No one ever knows where it's gonna go
But some goodbyes come with hellos

Goodbye and hello
So goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello, hello
So goodbye and hello
