

Unseen

Celeste

And I was left chasing myself
Embarrassed to learn what you'd taught me
And I would deny what you gave
If I asked there's nothing left to see

I know you felt unseen
Hardly yourself or is this what that means?

I skinned myself on the way out
And I'm happy to see it's of use
I guess we both tried different lay outs
I know you're bled out and confused

I know you felt unseen
Hardly yourself or is this what that means?

I'm sorry I made your thoughts go there
I got on the phone just to speak
I know it's no bother to bother you
When you haven't washed in a week
I know you felt unseen
Hardly yourself or is this what that means?
