Lucky me, to perform in Havana And there, I became a singer of songs They led me to the great Mamboleros In all of Cuba, the toast of the town

Singing at the Tropicana
My fantasies finally came true
Imagine, going to New York
Seeing the great ones, filled my heart and soul

We saw Arsenio with his singing band And Señor Rodríguez, that magical man I took the subway to El Barrio Got hugs and kisses from mi gente

Lucky me, I saw Machito

Ay Dios mío, El Excelente

Listening to Machito, dancing, drinking vino

Machito was for us El Count Basie Latino

We made it up to the Palladium
It didn't disappoint at all
Had a ball with Tito Puente
Tito Puente, the king of them all

With Tito Puente, we started to dance El rey Tito Puente, created a trance When Tito finished playing How could anything fill the hall

Surprise came Tito Rodríguez With his conjunto, to top it all Better two Titos than only one Better for dancing and also for fun

El señor me dio la dicha (negra)
Con Tito Puente y cantar con Tito Rodríguez
(Esa dicha me la dio el señor)
Ven a gozar con la dicha, a gozar con la dicha
(Esa dicha me la dio el señor)

(Esa dicha me la dio el señor)
Ay yo le canto
(Esa dicha me la dio el señor)
Y al que dios se lo dio San Pedro se lo bendiga