24/7

Celina Sharma

Can we just sit down, have a little conversation?
Yeah, I want to talk it out 'cause I'm all up in my feelings
I never felt this before
And I just wanna feel some more
We used to keep it casual
Now I wanna just be yours
Can we sit down, try to have a little conversation?

See you got me all in my head
Every day with you is like the weekend

I tried to quit but truth is I don't want to
'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about you

Staring at the clock, how'd I get so damn impatient?
I know you just left but I'm missing you like crazy
I usually don't get this far
I always cut 'em off before
My heart gets in too deep
I might let you in too deep
Now tell me, how's that for a little motivation?

See you got me all in my head
Every day with you is like the weekend

I tried to quit but truth is I don't want to
'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about you

Ah, I be thinking about you
I'll still be thinking 'bout you
Thinking about you
About you, ooh

See you got me all in my head
And every day with you is like the weekend

I tried to quit but truth is I don't want to
'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you

You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you
24/7 I'm thinking about you
