Right Next to the Right One

Celine Dion

What if we were meant to be together What if you were meant to be the one I could hide a million years and try to believe That any time the girl in mind will come and rescue me

Cause you're the fire, you're the one But you'll never see the sun If you don't know, you're right next to the right one And I could call it many names But it's myself I need to blame If you don't know, you're right next to the right one

In the end you've got a friend for lifetime Truly there to truly care for you I know you cry a million tears so I want you to know That a pretty face can take you places, you dont wanna go

Cause you're the fire, you're the one But you'll never see the sun If you don't know, you're right next to the right one And I could call it many names But it's myself I need to blame If you don't know, you're right next to the right one

So in the end it all depends on whether you'll find Warm embraces when I replace the one you had in mind...

Cause you're the fire, you're the one But you'll never see the sun If you don't know, you're right next to the right one And I could call it many names But it's myself I need to blame If you don't know, you're right next to the right one
