Thank You

Celine Dion

Down and out, all alone Sitting here, sad and ooh The sun is now going down It's kinda cold, seeking refuge

I trust a friendly face Or maybe just a smile Someone that understands What I'm going through right now And just before I...

Lay me down to never wake I look up and I see you So with everything I am

Thank you... Thank you... Because you didn't have to Thank you... With everything I am Thank you...

For the real sacrifice and the truth Behind your giving heart And how you'd never judge or faulted me Helped me 'cause you wanted to

And for your friendly face And for just your smiles Simply understanding that What I'm going through right now And just before I...

Lay me down to never wake I look up and I see you So with everything I am

Thank you... Thank you... Because you didn't have to Thank you... With everything I am Thank you...

'Cause when no one else would care you did And when no one else was there you were Now I am so aware You're a blessing to me What did I do to deserve... To deserve you... There's no words That could describe That could describe How much I... Thank you... Thank you... Because you didn't have to Thank you... With everything I am Thank you... For everything I am Thank you... Thank you... With everything I am Thank you...
