

Freeze

Cellar Darling

Am I dead? Am I dead?
Not yet, not yet
Am I dead? Am I dead?
Not yet, not yet

I'm not dead, yet stone-cold, filled with regret
In my head only you
I see red, I hasten, urge to forget
Everything in my head
Will you with your breath
Now freeze me to death?

This transcendental eminence
Is it all in my head for you?
This fundamental resonance
How it rings, how it's calling for you
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, I wanna forget

I ascend these heights in search of an end
In my head only you
As I roam this cave in search of a friend
Of whom I require:
Will you with your breath
Now freeze me to death?

This transcendental eminence
Is it all in my head for you?
This fundamental resonance
How it rings how it's calling for you
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, I wanna forget

You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, I wanna forget
You...

This transcendental eminence
Is it all in my head for you?
This fundamental resonance
How it rings, how it's calling for you
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, who I wanna forget
You, I wanna forget

Am I dead? Am I dead?
Not yet
Am I dead? Am I dead?
Not yet, not yet
